

PAT 2010

President's Award for teachers

What is PAT?

The President's Award for Teachers (PAT) gives national recognition to the critical role teachers play in moulding the future of our nation. These excellent teachers prepare their students for life. They are models of commitment to continual learning and enterprise. They are those who, through word and deed, inspire both their students and peers. The award will be presented by the President of the Republic of Singapore on Teachers' Day. At least one primary school teacher and one secondary school / junior college / centralised institute teacher will receive the award.

The Rewards?

The award will be used for professional development and personal enrichment and includes an expense-paid attendance at an international conference and visits to top schools overseas. The recipient of PAT will also be appointed as an Associate of Teachers Network and will be involved in the professional development of fellow teachers.

The Nominees?

Nominees for the award should be teachers who

- are presently in service in a primary or secondary school, a junior college or centralised institute
- have shown utmost concern for the character and moral development of students by word and personal example
- motivate, challenge, inspire and help students to find the potential within themselves
- welcome enterprise, innovation, curiosity and creativity in students

Completed forms are to be submitted to any schools or the Teachers Network.
The closing date for nominations is 24 February 2010.
